THE IRWIN STRIKE WASTE OF MONEY.

That is What President Lewis Said in His Annual Report Today.

ALREADY COST OVER $325,000

International Organization is Pouring $20,000 a Week into the Field—Does Not Believe Strikes Aid in Organizing Non-Union Territory.

United Press Telegram.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 18.—The annual report of President L. H. Lewis of the United Mine Workers read before the national convention today contained a denunciation of strikes as a means of organizing nonunion mining districts and a plea for non-strike action. He declared that the Sherman anti-trust law, declaring it is like other laws enacted for the protection of the people, in reality depriving the wage earners of their right to organize. He endorsed the employers' liability law, urged that a charter be granted the Western Federation of Miners in the American Federation of Labor and that it be amalgamated with the United Mine Workers of America.

President Lewis dealt at length with the situation in Pittsburgh and Western Pennsylvania districts where President Francis P. Feltman of that district, disregarding the Lewis policies, permitted a number of mines to continue operation after April 1 last and signed contracts with individual operators over the protest of the President.

The strike in the Lewis district, Lewis said, had cost $225,000 up to November 29 and the international organization had been pouring $20,000 a week into the district since, which he declared was a waste of money.

Picnic Funds for Charity

Rev. J. L. Proudft, chairman of the Charity Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, is confining his investigations into the needs of the McCrorey fire victims. Secretary J. Fred Kurtz of the Chamber of Commerce had not returned from Pittsburgh this morning and for that reason active work collecting the relief fund has not been commenced. Contributions are coming in to the individual members of the committee but these have not been reported as yet.

This morning J. G. Gorman, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Merchants Picnic, called a meeting to be held at Graham & Company's drug store at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. At that time the committee will take up the matter of contributing to the relief fund from the surplus that was left over from the picnic of last year. A liberal donation from this source will be made.

The information was made by Mrs. Rosa Stamick, also of Dutch Bottom. The defendants and the prosecutor reside in a double house and it was alleged by the prosecutor that Caspar and his wife threatened her life and were very disorderly.

Mrs. Caspar was discharged and Caspar was given the alternative of 10 days to jail or paying a fine, the costs being remitted. He paid the fine.

Work has been looking for the team since but failed to find it this morning. To the wagon were hitched a black horse and bay mare. Chief of Police George Heston says the team was stolen because he said the mare to works three years ago and knows she would not wander off anywhere but to the stable.

WILL BE NO REDUCTION OF WAGES BY THE H. C. FRICK COKE COMPANY SAYS PRESIDENT LYNCH TO COURIER.

States That 1910 Wage Scale Is in Effect at All the Frick Plants and That He Hopes and Believes if There Is Any Change in 1911 It Will Be an Increase and Not a Reduction.

Thomas Lynch, President of the H. C. Frick Coke Company, was in Scottdale yesterday, and in response to an inquiry by The Courier concerning rumors that the company would reduce wages, said with his characteristic directness:

"The scale of wages put into effect by our coke companies, January 1910, is still being strictly adhered to. There has been no reduction in any item at any of our plants, and no reduction is contemplated. On the contrary, we hope and believe that if any change is made in wages during 1911, it will be an advance and not a reduction."

EXPERT TESTIMONY IN SCHENK CASE.

Nothing Salacious in the Schenk Case This Morning.

YOUNG GIRL IS EJECTED

Judge Jordan Will Not Permit Minors to Attend the Trial and, Stylishly Dressed Miss Is Sent Out by Sheriff Dr. Ackermann Recalled.

United Press Telegram.

WHEELING, W. Va., Jan. 18.—Dr. J. Edward Burns, the specialist called in consultation with Dr. E. L. Hupp, O. Schenk's mysterious illness, was on the stand at the opening of the Schenk trial today.

Attorney J. J. O'Brien of the defense continued the cross examination. Dr. Burns testified that Schenk's symptoms, up to October 20th, was fixed by the witness, in response to Prosecutor Handlan's hypothetical question as to the probable date when Schenk was suffering from lead poisoning.

"Will you say that Schenk was not suffering from malaria fever?" asked O'Brien.

"I certainly will," witness replied.

"I will knock the props from under that 'family conspiracy' if it is made an issue," Handlan stated today. "I will force the defense to fall back upon the hereditary disease claim."

A pretty, stylishly dressed girl of 16 was ejected from the court room today by the sheriff. Her presence was in violation of Judge Jordan's rule barring minors. Dr. Gregory, physician on the packer's firm, was recalled. The witness said positively the blue mark was caused by lead poisoning and could not be traced to a gun discharging.

"Why did you order Schenk to take all his meals at the hospital?" Handlan asked.

"I found the patient could not have absorbed the lead in his business, that he was taken in constant attendance," the witness replied.

Ackermann said he quit attending Schenk because the millionaire went home in violation of his instructions. The hypothetical question was put to Ackermann, who said that the patient was suffering from lead and then from arsenic poisoning. The diagnosis of Schenk's symptoms he said, tallied with the theoretical small amount of arsenic administered to Schenk in his medicine could have had any serious effect.

A large crowd of women standing in the corridor outside the court room when Mrs. Laura Schenk is being tried, was refused admittance by trial Judge Jordan this afternoon.

"The evidence in this case is tending to corrupt the minds of the women who have been in constant attendance," the judge said just before the noon recess. "They go home and discuss the case and that is not right."

Handlan called George Coleman, a Wheeling druggist who analyzed water taken from the case from which Schenk's water had been taken.

Handlan had been Caruso's pianist for five years and had assisted him in all his concert opera work during that time. A great attachment existed between them.

THOMAS LYNCH DONATES $300.

Contributed Check for That Amount for Trinity Piano.

SPLENDID PROGRESS IS MADE

The Congregation Has Much of the Cost Already Provided and Only the Building Itself Is a Present Burden to Pay For.

United Press Telegram.

John Keck of East Fairview avenue yesterday received a check from President Thomas Lynch of the H. C. Frick Coke Company for $300 to be devoted to the purchase of a piano for the Sunday school of the new Trinity Lutheran church on East Fairview avenue. Mr. Keck is a veteran Frick employe. For years he was mine foreman at Henry Clay Novelty and Rice Store. His appeal to President Lynch was not without bountiful results.

Splendid progress has been made in the present new church building, which will be one of the finest in this section. The lot on which the new building stands is paid for, all of the memorial windows have been subscribed and the new stained glass windows are being made. For the present no provisions have been made for the pipe organ, but this will be taken up later. The energetic efforts of Rev. Ellis B. Burgess, pastor of the church, are greatly responsible for the splendid accomplishment.

This morning Rev. Henry W. A. Hanson, pastor of St. Luke's Lutheran Church of the North Side, Pittsburgh, was in Connellsville looking over the new Trinity Lutheran church. St. Luke's is to build a $60,000 church in the spring. Rev. Hanson was greatly pleased with the design of the new structure and heartily congratulated Rev. Burgess for what he has accomplished in Connellsville.

Bruschi had been Caruso's pianist for five years and had assisted him in all his concert opera work during that time. A great attachment existed between them.

Kurtz this morning received word from the Supervising Architect of the Treasury Department recommending him for the suggestion that provision be made in the plans for the Connellsville Federal building for a postal savings bank, in the very likely event of this office being named a depository after the law has been given a thorough trial.

The Supervising Architect replied that arrangements will be made for this in all probability locating that department near the Postmaster's office.

Mrs. Cochran at present resides in a beautiful home at St. James Park, but the new home, it is said, will not be exceeded in beauty of architecture and cost by any other in Fayette county.

Praise for the Linotype Boys

Regarding the linotype composition contest held by the Mergenthaler Linotype Company, the current issue of The Linotype Bulletin has this to say: "Copy for a full page and was brought into the composing room of the Connellsville (Pa.) Courier at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of Wednesday, December 21. Proof of the page was pulled at 4:15 p. m., just two hours and 13 minutes after work was started on it. R. W. Loberger was the operator. He changed liners five times in setting the body portion of the ad. C. W. Flemlater composed the few hand set lines and made the ad up. In forwarding us a proof and this phenomenal record, J. H. S. Stimml, business manager of The Courier, wrote us that he sent it merely to 'show what two men can do on the linotype.' We call it 'going some.'"

THE CHARITY OF CONNELLSVILLE.

The Conneltsville Herald has a grievance against the Fayette County Natural Gas Company. The company raised its rates 2 1/2 cents per thousand to ordinary consumers and 20 cents per thousand to newspaper offices. The latter had been getting a rate of 10 cents per thousand. The Herald doesn't care for itself, but like all public spirited newspapers it has the public interest at heart. It has, therefore, been loud and long and strong in its denunciations of the gas company.

We concede to our contemporary the right to use its own columns for its own purposes, but we protest against its dragging innocent people into its fight. It is not the business of a newspaper to conduct a campaign against the Conneltsville Chamber of Commerce and Conneltsville generally of heartless neglect of the victims of the McCrorey disaster. Conneltsville and its unfortunate sufferers appreciate sincere sympathy, not a campaign of mere words designed to advance personal interests. The charity of Conneltsville is neither sinister nor selfish.

A POINTED AND WELCOME ANNOUNCEMENT.

The positive announcement of the President of the H. C. Frick Coke Company, that the company would not reduce the wages of labor during the year 1911, but that if any change is made in the wages which it will be an advance and not a reduction, is highly gratifying to all classes and conditions of people in the Conneltsville area.

It means that there will be no reduction in the wages of coke workers, and it indicates that the representatives of the biggest industrial interest in the country hope for better times before the year comes to a close. The hope is by no means unreasonable. There is nothing in the situation to warrant pessimism. Business is not destroyed. It is merely in a halting condition. It is halting because of the uncertainties concerning Trust-fund, Railroad Rates and Customs Tariffs. When these matters are settled, there is no reason to think why business should not adjust itself to the resulting condition and go forward with confidence and perhaps with activity.

President Thomas Lynch of the H. C. Frick Coke Company evidently inclines to the opinion that times will be better before they are worse, and we incline to the opinion that he is correct in his opinion.

THE PROPOSED NEW MONONGAHELA COUNTY.

Since the election of John Kliney, Treasurer of Fayette County, some more enthusiastic than sensible Charleston citizens have revived the old talk about a new county with Charleston as its county seat. It seems that this project is almost as old as Statehood itself. The Washington Observer has devoted into the many records of the past and discovered that there have been no less than seven and perhaps as many as ten previous attempts in the same direction. The Observer says:

"The proposition to erect a new county in the Monongahela Valley is one more to the front. The newspapers have given it the most favorable attention. There have been more than a dozen times the history of effort for a new county."

The American is in error in saying that "it was in 1802 that the move was made toward forming a new county here." It was fought through two sessions of the Legislature and but for an untoward circumstance would have gone through.

As a matter of fact that was not the first effort but the last in a long series of attempts to form a new county from parts of Washington, Allegheny, Westmoreland and Fayette. The first effort was made as early as 1790. On

MINING SCHOOL MEETS SATURDAY.

One at Scottdale Will Take Up Subject of Ventilation

IT IS PART OF THE Y. M. C. A.

And With Other Educational Features in Notable Feature of the Association Work There--Several Classes For Ambitious Miners and Others.

Special to The Courier. SCOTSDALE, Jan. 18.—The Scottdale Y. M. C. A. Mining Institute meets in the local association rooms on Saturday evening. This is one of the educational features which are making the association notable in this locality. The institute on Saturday evening will be presided over by President L. R. Hower, State Mine Inspector for this district. The paper of the evening will be one on "Ventilation" by Dr. W. R. Crane, Dean of the School of Mining of Pennsylvania State College. Secretary W. H. Glasgow of the Institute will read the lecture, as it has been his custom since these lectures were inaugurated here a couple of years ago. This lecture will be the first of a series of three on the same subject.

There is a large attendance at these institutes and animated discussion follows the reading of the lectures. There is also an active "First Aid to the Injured" class maintained in the Y. M. C. A. of which Dr. O. C. Engle is the instructor.

The educational work of the Y. M. C. A. is keeping engaged a number of ambitious men in the Mechanical Drawing, Mathematics, English and Mining classes, and a high degree of efficiency has been attained by those in attendance. The instructors are among the best of this locality including W. R. Crane, Dean of the School of Mining of Pennsylvania State College, C. H. Francis, science teacher in the High School and Edward Quinn, a mine examiner.

General Secretary W. J. Graef is in close touch with F. H. Ditz, Secretary of the District Committee of the Y. M. C. A. and Scottdale is constantly assuming a great importance in the plan of education in which the coal and coal operators are now cooperating with the Y. M. C. A. in promoting among their men.

Chamber of Commerce Directors Tour Industrial Activities South of Town.

A party of Chamber of Commerce directors yesterday made a tour of inspection of the industrial activities to the south of town. The party was of no particular significance, it was stated, it so happening that the business men had a few hours off to look over the ground.

The party first went through the Kingston Tube Works, where iron tubing is being turned out to fill the many

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—City Chamberlain Charles H. Hyde returned to New York on the very night that the committee of the legislative investigating committee to examine him expired. The committee wanted Hyde to testify about sworn statements attesting to his conduct that he cooperated with Arcust Belmont, Harry Payne Whitney, J. P. Morgan and other millionaires in raising a bribe fund to kill the anti-trust bill at Albany in 1906. These men and others denied before the committee that they had participated in any bribery plot. Hyde, however, left the city and his testimony disappeared for more than a month. Later he was discovered on a houseboat in Florida waters. Then the big trestle of the Western Maryland put up prior to making the 60 foot fill across the field bottom, together with the concrete arch over Dunbar creek, was examined. Best Farmers' School at Scottdale

Special to The Courier. SCOTSDALE, Jan. 18.—That Scottdale turned out a bigger and more enthusiastic audience to the Farmers' Movable School than any town they have been in during the present season was the public expression made by Dr. M. D. Conrad and Prof. W. W. Cook, who left yesterday. Over 60 were in the Heights of Mahan hall last evening to hear Mrs. Sarah B. L. Ziegler and Miss S. A. Thomas. The former spoke of "The Wife as a Partner" and "The Child of Today the Farmer of Tomorrow" two splendid talks, while Mrs. Thomas told of her travels in foreign lands, and "The Workings of Our Homes," a plot for the kitchen. These two addresses were listened to with great interest. C. W. Myers presided and Elmer Morrow sang two evangelistic songs.

Today and this evening, Dr. J. H. Funk and W. Theo. Wittmann are the instructors. The former is a horticulturist and the latter a chicken expert, so the hall will be crowded. The school closes tomorrow evening.

What? asked Mr. Hemmer, "is your opinion of a woman who will pay a million dollars for the purpose of becoming the wife of a forlorn with a title?" "I think," replied Mrs. Wrinkles, "she is very foolish. After one goes abroad to live one never can have the pleasure of going to Europe every summer and smooching things in which one comes meet some."

Johnstown at South Side.

Canards regarding the Kummer situation are floating about with such reckless abandon that it is not strange to hear almost any statement regarding the former Coker captain. One report is that Kummer will be sold to Uniontown; another that he has the sulker; still another that he will soon jump the team and play no more baseball, and so on.

The true situation is that Kummer is out of the game with an injured wrist. The fact is while captain of the team he played in several games when he was a fit candidate for the hospital. When the injury healed, Kummer will be back in the lineup, playing his old star game.

That the management has ever considered the elimination of Kummer from the Cokers' payroll was emphatically denied yesterday. That his injury is due only to his injury, and is with the full consent and approval of both the management and Captain Dark, is as strongly affirmed. Reports concerning the grouchy vary. It is possible, and only natural, that repeated injuries on the wrist would have an effect on the other players, and the captain was probably no exception. That Billy is still nursing the grouchy is not given the slightest credence by the management, and by the players less than all.

Kummer's absence from the game has given White some much needed work and the former star now of league in fact, though in his old time form. White is taking good care of himself and needs only work, and plenty of it, to get him into shape once more. Steve is already popular with the fans and it begins to look as though the management made a tentative when they signed him after Uniontown let him go.

Captain Kid Dark has the boys working well. He is drilling into them the necessity of team work. Dark is giving the other four players on the floor lots of attention during the games and he knows just what they are doing and whether they are obeying orders. The result is the team is doing more passing than ever before this season and is piling up the scores. Dark does a lot of talking during a game and keeps plenty of finger in the players all the time. The players could not have made a better choice when it came to picking a leader. This is Dark's fifth season in the league and besides becoming a star player in that time he has learned about all there is to know about the game.

In Monday's game against Johnstown the Coker guards were second on but once by the forwards. Newman got a hold of off field, but neither Flax nor Newman could score with both legs and Doherty working. Considering that both Flax and Newman are going better just now than at any previous time this season, it speaks well for the guarding done by the Cokers.

Big John Ahern is playing better every game. Monday night Keenan only got one more field goal than Ahern and the Johnstown players were feeding the ball to him right along. Keenan is the best shot on the Johnstown team, with the possible exception of Fogarty, and Joe stood an chance at all against Fogarty the other night. Ahern played a great offensive game and his all round work was a feature.

Campbell, the big center Johnstown has cornered, is even larger than Ahern, and was the center of attraction when the Johns warmed up. Campbell is a college boy. He has lots to learn, it is said.
